Dear Deborah:

I received your letter of September 3, 2007. You have the requested ten days to see whether the doctor will release her. In ten days, however, if we do not have a definite understanding on a deposition date in the near future, then we will be compelled to file a motion with the Court. We simply cannot allow our client to suffer the consequences of your client's unavailability. I hope you understand.

By the way, I notice that the scales of justice on your stationary. That is very interesting.

I hope this letter finds you well.

Yours very truly,

Charles A. Stewart III
